Local attorney named chair of Dominican Hospital board
Edison Jensen to lead way in FY2011

SANTA CRUZ, June 2 – Santa Cruz attorney Edison Jensen has been named chair of Dominican Hospital’s board of directors. His tenure begins July 1.

Mr. Jensen has been on Dominican Hospital’s board since 2003, and most recently held the positions of secretary and vice chair. As a member of the board, he has also served on the Strategic Planning Committee, Medical Executive Committee, Nominating Committee, Privileges and Credentialing Committee and the Executive Committee.

He has also been chairman of the Salud Para La Gente (a Federally Qualified Health Center) board of directors since 1997. He was the founding Chairman of the Board of the Pajaro Valley Community Health Trust and has been recognized by the legal community for his Pro Bono work in the area of healthcare.

“I am proud to lead Dominican Hospital’s board of directors,” he said. “The hospital and I share a commitment to high quality healthcare delivered in a compassionate environment, and I look forward to helping Dominican continue its legacy of excellence in the Santa Cruz community.”

Dean Kashino, MD, is the outgoing chair for Dominican’s board of directors.

Mr. Jensen will work closely with Dominican board vice-chair Nancy Austin, a well-known authority on business excellence and leadership. She is co-author (with Tom Peters) of the bestselling “A Passion for Excellence.”
